Civil Litigation Associates

Our civil litigation department is interested in hiring the following associates to join our litigation team:

- an associate with 2 to 4 years' experience;
- an associate with 4 to 6 years' experience; and
- an associate with 6+ years' experience.

As a member of the civil litigation department, you will assist a team on larger cases and work independently on other litigation matters, providing services in a wide array of litigation matters including aboriginal law, employment law, insurance law, personal injury, products liability, medical malpractice and other professional negligence claims, corporate law disputes, construction law, estate litigation, and administrative law matters, among other areas.

Our firm offers a very competitive compensation and benefits package. We believe strongly in the value of mentorship and strive to provide meaningful opportunities for associates to learn and grow their practice with the help and support from partners and senior associates. We have built a collegial and positive firm culture that is friendly, collaborative, and flexible, with a focus on teamwork. We celebrate our wins together and find opportunities to have fun along the way. Our associates of today are our partners of tomorrow.
